

Youth with ID and DD service domains	Youth with ID/DD core services
Prevention, Early Identification, and Early Intervention	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Specialty consultation models to primary care providers</li> <li>• Early developmental screening provided in primary care, title V and childcare settings</li> <li>• All children have access to medical home model regardless of Medicaid eligibility</li> <li>• Parents, family members and care providers have access to information that helps them understand their child's developmental disability and helps build positive expectations for their child.</li> <li>• Parent to parent (sponsors) network</li> </ul>
Behavioral Health Supports (due to communication and functional limitations)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Interdisciplinary assessment and evaluation services</li> <li>• Medication prescribing and management</li> <li>• Access to behavioral support services through ID/DD waiver</li> <li>• Mobile crisis intervention and stabilization services</li> <li>• 24 hr crisis hotline</li> <li>• Parent to parent (sponsors) network</li> <li>• 23 hour crisis stabilization</li> <li>• 30-90 day inpatient for behavior plans &amp; medication adjustments</li> <li>• Access to behavioral support services in home school and work settings through ID/DD waiver</li> <li>• Functional assessments and behavioral support plan development.</li> <li>• ABA Telehealth services to train family and providers in community and work settings how to support the individual</li> <li>• Access to ABA (time limited?) services for everyone with ASD diagnosis.</li> </ul>
Family Supports	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Transition-age youth services</li> <li>• Family and peer support with access to Parent to Parent sponsoring</li> <li>• Out of home and in home respite</li> <li>• Respite service include siblings participation</li> <li>• Electronic supports including but not limited to: on line group chats, positive text messaging, tele health consultations, live video chats.</li> </ul>

Community-based Flexible Supports	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Education supports</li> <li>• Employment supports for youth with ID/DD</li> <li>• Access to Assistive Technology across all settings ( home, school and work)</li> <li>• Access to on-going therapies needed such as but not limited to PT, OT and Speech</li> <li>• E-health consultations for: Office to office; office to home; home to home or various settings.</li> <li>• Access to assistive technology that promotes individuals independence or ability to work</li> <li>• Increased SCL waiver services during transition periods</li> <li>• Access to supervision services while child lives at home</li> <li>• Trainings on:             <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. how to develop a child's path plan</li> <li>2. A Microboard</li> <li>3. Community Choice Option on self-direction services</li> </ol> </li> </ul>
-----------------------------------	---